

6516208311.txt

If you keep revising the ammendments, soon we won't be able to say anything, nor will we have anything to listen to. Howard Stern is still on the air, shouting out profanities, xm should have the right to broadcast a weather station which can save lives.